Trend 2 Information habits of young people

Trend 2

Millennials don't use the library

"The library is a good source if you have several months."

"Hard to find things in library catalog."

"Yeah, I don't step in the library anymore... better to read a 25-page article from JSTOR than a 250-page book."

WorldShare early adopters: Norway, The Netherlands, Canada

A screenshot of the University of New Brunswick (UNB) website, specifically the library section. The top navigation bar includes links for Home, Products, Search, loan and order, Help/Support, and My loans. A sidebar on the left lists various library services and contact information. The main content area features a banner for the University Library, highlighting its collection of over 500,000 books, journals, and e-books. Below the banner, there is a section for UNB Libraries, which includes a list of library collections and a link to the library's website. The bottom of the page displays a list of academic programs and departments.
